INDIVIDUAL'S ACCESS TO OWN INFORMATION

An individual who establishes his or her identity to the reasonable satisfaction of Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau and pays the appropriate fee is entitled to request a Consumer Enquiry Report on himself or herself. This report will be free of charge if he or she establishes to the reasonable satisfaction of Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau that he or she or a customer for whom he or she was to be surety, has been denied credit facilities by a Subscriber wholly or partly on the basis of a Consumer Enquiry Report on him or her which was generated by Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau at the request of the Subscriber.

In such case, the individual shall as soon as practicable be provided by Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau with a printed copy of the Consumer Enquiry Report sent to such Subscriber and such copy shall contain the same information as in the Consumer Enquiry Report which was sent to the Subscriber.

Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau shall render necessary assistance to the individual in explaining the contents of a Consumer Enquiry Report or Data released to an individual.

INVESTIGATION INTO DISPUTED INFORMATION

An individual (in respect of himself or herself) and/or a Subscriber (in respect of any of its Customers) may notify Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau that the completeness or accuracy of any item of information is disputed, specifying the particulars. Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau shall investigate the completeness or accuracy of the disputed information in consultation with the Subscriber or Subscribers and/or other sources who or which provided information.

The disputed Information shall remain part of the Credit File on the relevant Individual until such time as the investigation is completed and a determination is made as to whether the disputed Information should be rectified, updated or re-affirmed. All Consumer Enquiry Reports generated in respect of the relevant individual during such period shall contain a cautionary note to the effect that Information on the relevant Individual is disputed and under investigation and shall indicate the disputed item(s) under investigation.

Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau shall complete its investigation into the completeness or accuracy of the disputed item(s) specified as expeditiously as practicable.

RECTIFICATION AND UPDATING OF INFORMATION BY THE BUREAU

Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau shall take all reasonable efforts to ensure that Information regarding an Individual is updated as soon as practicable including when it receives Information from a Member that any overdue account previously notified to Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau has been repaid in whole or in part or when it determines that any Information is materially incomplete or inaccurate, on whether or not there has been an investigation arising from a dispute.

Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau shall rectify information regarding an Individual when it becomes aware that any Information regarding an Individual was inaccurate at the time when Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau received it. In particular, Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau shall rectify Information when such rectification is requested or confirmed by the Subscriber who, or source(s). And Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau will rectify information obtained by Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau from any public record(s) when there is an amendment or correction made to the public record data by the party responsible for maintaining such data.

Whenever Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau rectifies any Information, it may, as soon as practicable, advise all Subscribers appearing on the relevant Previous Enquiry Record as having been provided with a Consumer Enquiry Report on the relevant Individual during the period commencing from:

- (If Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau determines that the incompleteness or inaccuracy rectified arose from Received Information and such date is ascertained by Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau) the date the Information rectified was initially received by Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau;
- (If Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau determines that the incompleteness or inaccuracy rectified arose from an error by Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau and such date is ascertained by Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau) the date the information rectified was initially entered by Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau;
- In any other case, thirty (30) days preceding the earlier of the following:
 - a. The date on which Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau first became aware of the need to rectify such Information; or
 - b. The date of receipt of the relevant Dispute (if any), and ending on the date on which the Information was rectified. No rectification advise will be issued in cases where Information which was correct and accurate at the time that a Consumer Enquiry Report was provided by Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau became incorrect or inaccurate owing to a subsequent change of the relevant Individual's particulars or other circumstances.

COMPLAINTS AS TO BREACH(ES) OF THIS GUIDELINES

If an Individual and/or a Subscriber is of the opinion that Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau and/or any Subscriber has breached the fundamentals of this Compliance Guide, the Complainant may lodge a complaint in writing specifying the nature of the alleged breach(es) to Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau for investigation.

Upon receipt of a Complaint, Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau shall investigate it in consultation with the Subscriber or Subscribers and/or other parties (if any) as may be concerned.

Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau shall complete its investigation into the complaint as expeditiously as practicable and shall take all measures as it may consider appropriate arising from the same and compile its report on the Complaint including the results of its investigations and all measures and actions taken arising there from and such report shall forthwith be entered into Singapore Commercial Credit Bureau's operations log.
